

JAVA FUNDAMENTAL PROJECT

TECHNICAL GUIDE

Project definition:

The project is an application that is designed eclipse and java as the main programming language and xml for the design and GUI interpretation and javafx class or function

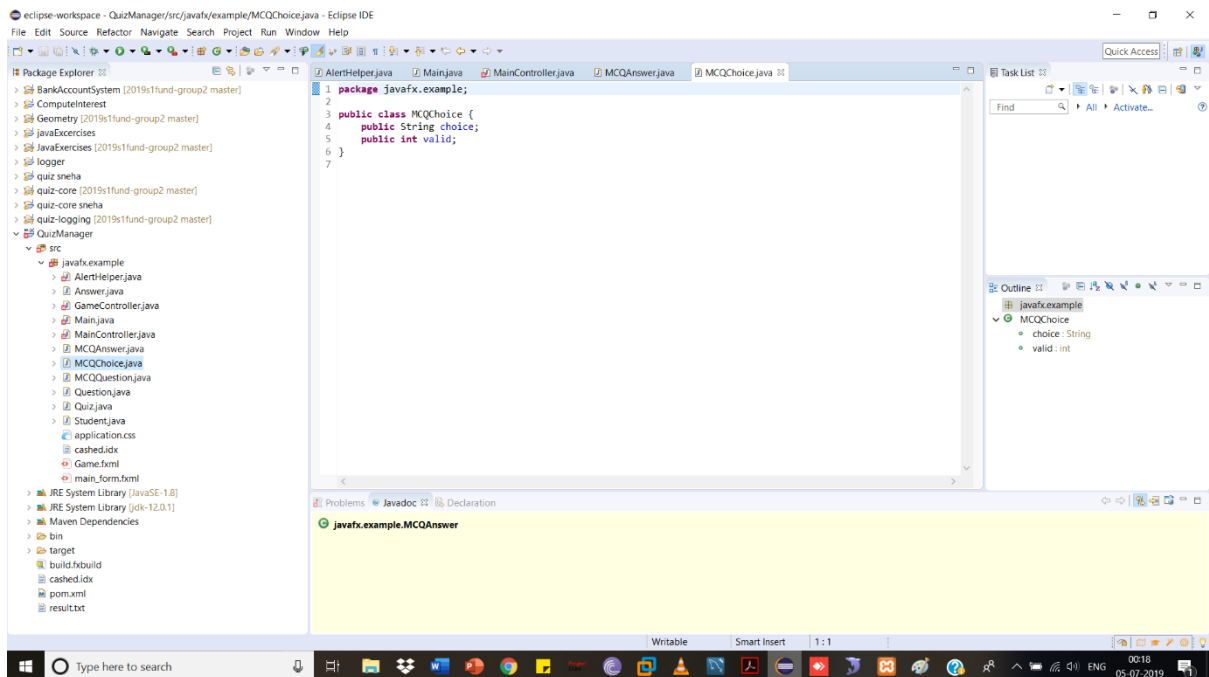

And for storing and retrieving the information made use of MYSQL data base the student's information is stored and monitored

There is a main java class quiz manager class multiple choice question and answer class main form class and an xml class game controller class

This is an image of the main controller class

This is the mcq question class

This is the main quiz class

